

Role of Islamic Capital Markets in Achieving Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

1.30-3.30, 3 April 2018, Ramada Hotel, Tunis

Overview

The objective of the seminar will be to discuss the importance and relevance of Islamic capital markets and how these can be leveraged for development projects and consequently achieving the SDGs. The seminar will address:

- a. Current status and outlook for Islamic capital markets
- b. Role of capital markets in bridging the investment gap for development
- c. Sukuk as an instrument of resource mobilization for SDGs

The event will be for the duration of two hours and comprise two sessions.

Session 1. Utilization of the Islamic capital markets for achieving the SDGs

| S/No. | Speakers |
|--------------|---|
| 1 | H.E. Dr. Bandar Hajjar, President, IDB |
| 2 | H.E. Dr. Mahmoud Mohieldin, Senior VP, World Bank |
| 3 | H.E. Dr. Sri Mulyani Indrawati, Finance Minister, Indonesia |

Session 2.

IDB Sukuk Model Law Project

| | |
|------------------|---|
| Presenter | Dr. Mansur Noibi, Acting Director General/General Counsel, IDB |
|------------------|---|

Issues and challenges of Sukuk and its relevance for sustainable development

| S.N | Panelists |
|-----|---|
| 1 | Mr. M. Tiemoko Meyliet Kone, Governor, Central Bank of West African States (BCEAO) (TBC) |
| 2 | Datuk Zainal Izlan Zainal Abidin, Managing Director, Development & Islamic Markets, Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), Malaysia |
| 3 | Ms. Gulcin Salingan, Deputy Director, Istanbul International Center for Private Sector in Development (IICPSD), United Nations Development Program (UNDP) |
| 4 | Representative of HSBC |
| 5 | Representative of Central Bank of Tunisia |

| | |
|------------------|--|
| Moderator | Yahya Aleem ur Rehman, Global Lead Islamic Finance Advisory, Islamic Financial Sector Development Department, IDB |
|------------------|--|